- Continuation of 2. NOTE: The newly added claims 55-56 would require further search and/or consideration; and
 - Claim 56 is directed to non-statutory subject matter because it merely claims "a computer program product".

Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Applicant argues that Kunieda does not disclose that each such item, or object, is duplicate of a portion of a corresponding one of the plurality of multimedia presentations. (page 18, 2nd para.)

In response, Kunieda's teachings "contents 'news' for the retrieval item 'title' ... is identical to the content 'news' for the retrieval information" (col.27, lines 45-col.28, line 64 and Fig.25) meets the claimed limitations as claimed by Applicant.

Applicant argues that Kunieda also does not present related data items in accordance with the user's selection of other data items. (page 20, last para.)

In response, the limitation "present related data items in accordance with the user's selection of other data items" is not claimed in the claimed limitations.
